The admission requirements, as defined in this public notice, must be held at the submission deadline.

Art. 3 How to apply

Applicants must submit their application form, as well as the qualifications held, documents and publications considered useful for the procedure, under penalty of exclusion, online, using the online application form available on the following webpage:

<https://pica.cineca.it/unipa/>

Applicants can register and log in using the credentials issued directly by the platform or authenticate with their LOGINMIUR, REPRISE or REFEREES account, if in possession. The computer application will require the possession of an e-mail address in order to register to the system.

Applicants must enter all the data required to produce the application form and attach the documents in PDF format. The application form must be completed in all its parts, as indicated in the online procedure. Other methods of sending application forms or documentation useful for participation in the procedure are not allowed.

The computer application allows applicants to save the documentation entered in draft mode, within the deadline for submitting the application.

The date of the electronic submission of the application is certified by the information system by means of a receipt, which will be automatically sent by e-mail when the application is submitted.

Once the application has been completed and all the attachments have been enclosed, the candidates must click on the "submit" button ("presenta"). The completion of the application will be proven only by the change in the status of the application, which will appear "submitted" ("presentata") and no longer "in draft" ("in bozza").

Upon expiry of the deadline for submission, the system will no longer allow access and sending of the online form. Each application will be assigned an identification number which, along with the competition code indicated in the computer application, must be specified for any subsequent communication.

The deadline for the completion and online submission of the application form is the thirtieth (30th) day after the official publication of the call for recruitment on the Gazzetta Ufficiale della Repubblica Italiana, Quarta Serie Speciale Concorsi ed Esami, at 23.59 (Italian local time), otherwise shall be excluded.

Under penalty of exclusion, the application form must be signed, must contain all the required data and be accompanied by a valid identification document.

The application can be signed with a certified digital signature. Otherwise, candidates must save the PDF file generated by the system on their computer and, without modifying it in any way, print it and add a complete handwritten signature on the last page of the printout. This complete document must be scanned and uploaded to the computer system in PDF format.

For technical problems only, support is available via the link <https://pica.cineca.it/unipa/>.

When filling in the aforementioned online application form, the applicants must declare, under their own responsibility:

- name and surname;
- place and date of birth;
- social security number – fiscal code number (only for Italian citizens);
- residence;
- domicile;
- own personal certified email address PEC (only for Italian citizens);

In relation to administrative documentations, citizens of a non-EU country must comply with the requirements foreseen in art. 3, paragraphs 2, 3 and 4 of the D.P.R. n. 445/2000.

The Administration reserves the right to run the necessary verifications on the truthfulness of the declarations, self-certifications and declarations in lieu of an affidavit. In the event of fake statements, the provisions in articles 483, 485 and 486 of the penal code will be applied.

Candidates are required to pay a fee of €35,00 by the expiry date of the application submission deadline. This fee must be paid by bank transfer credited to the bank account no. 000300004577 in the name of the University of Palermo - Agency A - Via Roma, Palermo - UniCredit S.p.A. - IBAN code IT09A0200804682000300004577 - indicating in the reason for payment: "Contribution to competition 2022PO57 Full Professor SSD _____". For payment issued from abroad - Swift code / code: UNCRITMMXXX. The receipt of the bank transfer must be attached to the competition application.

Art. 4 Publications

The publications that the candidate will submit for this selection procedure sequentially numbered in line with the relevant list, must be attached exclusively in pdf format throughout the proper section of the online procedure.

Only the publications and texts accepted for publication, according to the regulations in force, within the deadline for the submission of applications can be evaluated for the purposes of the selection procedure as well as essays included in collective works and articles published in magazines in paper or digital format with the exclusion of internal notes or departmental reports.

The texts or articles accepted for publication, within the deadline date of the announcement, must be submitted together with the acceptance document from the publisher or a declaration in lieu of an affidavit made by the candidates.

The publications contained in the list but not submitted will not be taken into consideration by the selection committee.

For publications published in Italy, must be fulfilled the obligations established by Law no. 106 and the related regulation issued with Presidential Decree 3 May 2006 n. 252.

Publications published abroad must report the date and, if possible, the place of publication or, as an alternative, the ISBN, ISSN code or the like.

The publications must be submitted in their original language. Should this language be different from Italian, French, English, German or Spanish, publications must be submitted together with the Italian translation, certified as conforming to the foreign text, drawn up by the relevant diplomatic or consular representation or by an official translator.

For procedures regarding linguistic sectors it is allowed to submit publications produced in a language or in one of the languages for which the competition was announced, even if they are different from the ones laid down in the previous paragraph.

Art. 5 Exclusion

Candidates are admitted to the selection procedure under reserve.

The exclusion, due to the lack of one of the requirements set out in this announcement, can be decided at any time during the procedure, by a duly motivated Decree, issued by the Rector and notified to the interested party by PEC or by registered letter with return receipt for foreign candidates.

Art. 6 Selection Committee

The Selection Committees, in charge of each selection procedures, are appointed according to art. 5 of the "Regulation for the recruitment of first-level and second-level professors and temporary researchers" issued by the University of Palermo.

The designation decree is published on the University Official Register.

Candidates can ask for one or more of the committee members to recuse, under art. 51 and 52 of the Code of Civil Procedure, by sending their request to the Rector within thirty days from the day after the publication on the University Official Register of the Rector's Decree by which the Committee is appointed. Should a reason to recuse arise after the aforementioned time limit, but still before that the Committee has taken office, the deadline starts from the moment that the reason to recuse arose. The petitioner's procedure is not allowed anymore when the mentioned deadline has passed and, in any case, after the setting-up of the selection Committee. If all the candidates declare that there are no grounds for recusal, the deadline referred to in the first period ceases to run in advance and the Committee can start work.

The Committee can hold its meetings online, except for the activities related to the didactic exam; for the discussion/evaluation of the scientific publications submitted by the candidates and in case of a language skills assessment when candidates are not associate professors

Art. 7

General assessment criteria

The Committee pre-determines the criteria for the assessment of the candidates, which are published, for at least seven days, in the Official Register of the University, before continuing the work.

The Commission proceeds collectively to the comparative assessment of the candidates with respect to the profile identified by the announcement, on the basis of didactic activity, scientific publications, curriculum and institutional and organizational activities, where required, of the assistance activity attested by the documents attached to the application for participation in the selection procedure.

When assessing the teaching activity, the extent and continuity of the activities are considered, with particular reference to the courses and modules for which responsibility has been assumed. When assessing supplementary teaching and student service activities, the activities for the preparation of degree theses, master's and doctoral theses, seminars, exercises and student tutoring can be considered.

The assessment of the scientific publications as referred to in paragraph 1, is carried out on the basis of the following criteria:

- a) originality, innovation, methodological accuracy and resonance of each scientific publication;
- b) congruence of each publication with the profile of university professor to be covered or with interdisciplinary topics strictly related to it;
- c) scientific resonance of the editorial location of each publication and its dissemination within the scientific community;
- d) analytical definition of the individual contribution provided by the candidate when working in collaboration, also based on criteria recognised by the international scientific community of reference.
- e) for those competition sectors whose use is internationally accepted, when assessing publications, the Committees shall take into consideration the following indicators, within the application deadline terms:
 - 1) overall number of academic quotations;
 - 2) average number of academic quotations per publication;
 - 3) overall "impact factor";
 - 4) average "impact factor" per publication;
 - 5) combinations of the aforementioned parameters to enhance the impact of the candidates' scientific production (Hirsch indicator and the like).

In the event that the candidate does not hold the role of associate professor, a didactic exam, a discussion on the scientific publications presented and an eventual assessment of language skills are foreseen.

When assessing the scientific, institutional and organizational activities, the following aspects will also be taken into consideration:

- a) organising, directing and coordinating national and international research groups or participating in them and other research activities such as the direction or participation in editorial committees of journals;
- b) holding patents in the competition sectors for which they are relevant;
- c) being awarded or having received national and international recognition for research activities;
- d) institutional positions within Italian or foreign university institutions;
- e) assistance activity where foreseen;
- f) for those competition sectors whose use is internationally accepted, when assessing publications, the Committees shall take into consideration the following indicators, within the application deadline terms:
 - 1) overall number of academic quotations;
 - 2) average number of academic quotations per publication;
 - 3) overall "impact factor";
 - 4) average "impact factor" per publication;

5) combinations of the aforementioned parameters to enhance the impact of the candidates' scientific production (Hirsch indicator and the like).

Participation as a speaker at congresses and conferences of international interest can also be considered.

At the end of the work, the Committee identifies, for each position offered, the most qualified candidate to cover the vacancy described in this public notice. If the candidate does not accept, the Committee, in the event that there are other candidates for the position offered, will identify the most qualified candidate in a subsequent meeting.

Art. 8 Conclusion

The Committee must conclude the procedure within three months from when the Commission start working and operating.

The Rector may extend the deadline for the conclusion of the procedure for one time and for no more than one month for proven and exceptional reasons as showed by the President of the Committee.

In the event that the works have not been completed within the terms of the extension, the Rector, with a reasoned decree, will replace the Committee or the members to whom the causes of the delay are attributable, at the same time establishing a new deadline for the conclusion of the works. After this deadline, the Rector will declare the Commission lapsed.

Art. 9 Documents conformity and regularity check

Within 30 days from the delivery of the procedures documentation, the Rector, by his own decree verifies the formal regularity of the documentation and declares the name of the most qualified candidate to cover the vacancy, subject of this call for recruitment, up to the coverage of the positions foreseen with this public notice and taking into account the priorities as per Annex 1.

The Decree will be sent to all applicants and to the Department in charge of that position. The Decree will be also published on the University website.

Should the Rector notice an irregularity, upon due justification, the documentation might be resent to the Committee for it to be regularized within the deadline established by the Rector.

Art. 10 Personal Data Processing

The personal data provided by the candidates will be collected and processed by the University of Palermo in compliance with the legislation in force, for the relevant purposes connected to the procedure. The data communication is mandatory, otherwise excluded.

The interested parties can find more information on data processing at the following link: <https://www.unipa.it/privacy/informativa/informazioni-sul-trattamento-di-dati-personali---procedure-concorsuali-e-selettive-bandite-dallateneo/>

Art. 11 Officer in charge of the Procedure
