HEREBY RESOLVES

ART. 1

Number of Positions and Required Profile

The University of Palermo hereby announces a public selection procedure, based on qualifications and examinations, for the recruitment of one (1) full-time Technologist on a fixed-term contract of 18 months, at a Senior Professional Level (EP Grade), in the Technical-IT Sector, to be assigned to SIA – University Information Systems Area. The professional profile and admission requirements are specified in Annex 1.

Assignment Area	Classification Area	Positions	Duration	Project Code	CUP
SIA – University Information Systems Area	EP – Technical-IT Sector	1	18 months	PNC PRJ-1186 (DARE)	B53C22006460001

ART. 2

Requirements for Admission

To be admitted to the public selection procedure referred to in Art. 1, candidates must meet the following general requirements:

- possession of the educational and professional qualifications specified in Annex 1;
- to be at least 18 years of age;
- to hold Italian citizenship or citizenship of another European Union Member State; alternatively, candidates must declare that they are family members of non-EU citizens who hold the right of residence or the right of permanent residence, or be third-country nationals holding an EU long-term residence permit or possessing refugee status or subsidiary protection status;
- physical fitness for employment. The Administration reserves the right to subject the successful candidate to a medical examination in accordance with current legislation;

e. compliance with military service obligations, for those born before 1986;
f. enjoyment of civil and political rights;
g. to not have any criminal convictions, including those for which a final judgment has not yet been issued, that would prevent the establishment or continuation of an employment relationship with a public administration

For educational qualifications obtained abroad, a declaration of equivalence of the foreign qualification to the corresponding Italian qualification is required, issued pursuant to Article 38 of Legislative Decree No. 165/2001, or alternatively, proof that the application for equivalence of the foreign qualification to the one required by this call for applications has been initiated, in accordance with the procedure set out in Article 38 of Legislative Decree No. 165/2001 and Article 2 of Presidential Decree No. 189 of 30 July 2009 (reference website: <http://www.funzionepubblica.gov.it/strumenti-e-controlli/modulistica>), or any other procedure permitted under current legislation. In any case, the final recognition must be held by the candidate at the time of employment.

Applicants who have criminal convictions must state the date of the sentence, the authority that issued it, and the nature of the offence, even if a pardon, amnesty, or other form of clemency (e.g. commutation or judicial remission) has been granted, and even if no record appears on their criminal record certificate. Ongoing criminal proceedings must also be disclosed, regardless of their nature.

Applicants shall not be eligible for employment if they have been excluded from active electoral rights, if they have been dismissed or removed from a position in a public administration due to persistent underperformance, if they have been declared forfeited from a public service position under Article 127, paragraph 1, letter d) of the Consolidated Law on the status of civil servants of the State (Presidential Decree No. 3 of 10 January 1957), or if they have been dismissed for having obtained employment through the use of false documents or other fraudulent means.

Furthermore, in accordance with Article 7, paragraph 2 of the Code of Ethics of the University of Palermo and Article 18, paragraph 1, letters b) and c) of Law No. 240/2010, individuals shall not be eligible to participate in this procedure if they have family or kinship relationships, up to and including the fourth degree, with any professor from the department or structure issuing the call, or with the Rector, the Director General, or a member of the University's Board of Directors.

Foreign nationals must also meet the following requirements:

- 1) enjoy full civil and political rights in their country of origin or nationality;
- 2) meet all other eligibility requirements established for Italian citizens, with the exception of Italian citizenship itself;
- 3) have an adequate knowledge of the Italian language.

All of the above requirements must be met by the application deadline.

Failure to meet the prescribed requirements, whether ascertained during or after the selection procedure, will result in exclusion from the procedure and, where applicable, termination of the employment contract if already in place.

The University guarantees equal access to employment and equal treatment in the workplace for all individuals, regardless of gender.

ART. 3

Application and Deadline for Submission

Applications for participation in the public selection procedure must be submitted exclusively online, under penalty of exclusion, using the dedicated online platform available at:

<https://pica.cineca.it/unipa/>

Applicants may access the platform using the SPID (Public Digital Identity System), by selecting the University of Palermo from the list of institutions. Alternatively, applicants may register directly on the platform and log in using credentials issued by the system, or by authenticating with their LOGINMIUR, REPRISSE or REFEREEES account, if available. In order to complete the registration, a valid email address is required.

Applicants must enter all the requested information and upload the required documents in PDF format.

The application must be completed in full, in accordance with the online procedure, and must include a valid identity document.

No other methods of submitting the application or supporting documents will be accepted.

The platform allows users to save the application in draft mode until the submission deadline.

The submission date is certified by the system through an automatic receipt email sent at the time the application is submitted.

Once the application form has been completed and all attachments uploaded, applicants must ensure that they click the "presenta" (submit) button. Submission will be confirmed only when the application status changes from "in bozza" (draft) to "presentata" (submitted).

After the deadline, access to the platform and submission of the application will no longer be possible.

Each application will be assigned a unique identification number, which, together with the competition code indicated on the platform, must be referenced in any future correspondence.

The online application process must be completed no later than 12:00 (noon) on the fifteenth day following the date of publication of this call for applications.

If the application is submitted via SPID, the system will automatically consider it signed, and no further signature will be required.

In all other cases, the application must be signed, contain all required information, and include a valid identity document, under penalty of exclusion.

The application may be digitally signed using a certified digital signature, but only in CADES format. Alternatively, the applicant must download the PDF file generated by the system, print it without making any changes, and sign the last page by hand in full. The signed document must then be scanned and uploaded to the platform in PDF format.

For technical issues only, please contact support using the dedicated link at the bottom of the page:

<https://pica.cineca.it/unipa/>

When completing the above-mentioned online application, candidates must declare under their own responsibility the following information:

- full name;
- place and date of birth;
- Italian tax code (codice fiscale) – required for Italian citizens only;
- place of residence and, if different, address for correspondence;
- personal certified email address (PEC);
- email address;
- telephone number;
- current citizenship;
- if Italian, the municipality in which the candidate is registered on the electoral roll, or the reasons for any non-registration or removal from the same;
- foreign nationals must also declare that they enjoy full civil and political rights in their country of origin or nationality, or provide reasons for not enjoying such rights, and confirm adequate knowledge of the Italian language;
- that they have no criminal convictions, or, where applicable, details of any criminal convictions, including the relevant court decisions (even if a pardon, amnesty, commutation, or judicial clemency has been granted), and any ongoing criminal proceedings;
- current status with regard to military service obligations, for those born up to 1985;
- that they are physically fit for employment;
- possession of the required educational qualification(s), specifying the year obtained and the awarding institution, and of the professional qualification required for the position, as set out in Annex 1 of this call;
- any additional qualifications eligible for evaluation;
- any preference criteria applicable in the event of equal ranking, held as of the deadline for submission of the application. Failure to declare such criteria will result in forfeiture of the associated benefits;
- that they have not been dismissed or removed from employment in a public administration due to persistent underperformance, and have not been declared forfeited from another public sector post pursuant to Article 127, letter d), of Presidential Decree No. 3 of 10 January 1957;
- that they do not have any kinship or close personal relationship, up to and including the fourth degree, with the Rector, the Director General, a member of the University's Board of Directors, or with any professor from the department that approved the recruitment request.

The following documents must be attached to the application:

- a copy of a valid identity document (front and back). This is not required for candidates who log in using the SPID (Public Digital Identity System);
- a copy of the Italian tax code (codice fiscale) – required only for Italian citizens and not required for candidates accessing via SPID;
- a curriculum vitae in Europass format;
- any qualifications to be submitted for evaluation;
- any additional documents required by this call for applications (e.g. the declaration of equivalence for academic qualifications obtained abroad).

Any documents written in a foreign language must be accompanied by a certified Italian translation that is faithful to the original text, issued by the relevant diplomatic or consular authorities, or by an official translator.

Candidates with disabilities and/or recognised impairments, pursuant to Law No. 104/1992 and subsequent amendments, and Law No. 68/1999, as well as candidates with specific learning disorders (DSA) as referred to in Decree-Law No. 80 of 9 June 2021, converted with amendments by Law No. 113 of 6 August 2021, must indicate their condition in the application form and request any assistance or reasonable accommodations required for the examination, in relation to their specific needs, as provided for by the above-mentioned legislation.

In such cases, candidates must submit appropriate medical documentation clearly outlining the key elements of their condition, in order to enable the University to make timely arrangements for the necessary support and accommodations.

Failure to indicate the required support in the application will automatically exempt the University from any responsibility in this regard.

The University reserves the right, at any stage of the procedure, to verify the accuracy of the declarations made by candidates in accordance with Presidential Decree No. 445/2000 and its subsequent amendments.

ART. 4

Application Requirements for Foreign Candidates

In addition to the provisions set out in the previous article and in the documents available through the online platform, foreign candidates must declare in their application:

- that they enjoy full civil and political rights in their country of origin or nationality, or provide the reasons for not enjoying such rights;
- that they have an adequate knowledge of the Italian language.

EU citizens may list the qualifications they wish to submit for evaluation in their CV, prepared in accordance with the guidelines outlined in the previous article.

Non-EU citizens residing in Italy may submit self-certifications only in cases where the facts, statuses or personal qualifications are certifiable or attestable by Italian public or private entities.

In all other cases, candidates must submit their qualifications for evaluation by uploading the documents in .pdf format to the online platform, together with an Italian translation certified as conforming to the original text, issued by the relevant Italian diplomatic or consular authorities or by an official translator.

Candidates may be conditionally admitted even in the absence of the certified translation; however, such translation must be submitted — without exception and under penalty of exclusion — prior to the start of employment.

In addition, non-EU citizens must hold a valid EU long-term residence permit, or have recognised refugee status or subsidiary protection status, at the time of taking up the position, where applicable.

ART. 5

Mandatory Requirements – Grounds for Exclusion

Candidates shall be excluded from the public selection procedure in the following cases:

- 1) failure to meet any of the admission requirements set out in Article 2;
- 2) failure to submit the application via the PICA – CINECA online platform, as specified in Article 3, or failure to upload the required documentation within the specified deadline.

Candidates are admitted to the procedure on a provisional basis.

The University reserves the right to exclude a candidate from the selection process at any time, by means of a reasoned decision, including after the interview has taken place. Any exclusion will be formally notified to the candidate concerned.

ART. 6 Selection Committee

By decree of the Director General, a Selection Committee shall be appointed, consisting of three members who may be chosen from among full professors, associate professors, or researchers, including those external to the University.

The first meeting of the Selection Committee shall be convened by the Chair.

During its first meeting, the Committee shall establish the general criteria for the evaluation of candidates.

At the end of the initial meeting, the minutes shall be submitted to the Selection Procedure Officer, who shall ensure their publication by posting them on the University's Official Noticeboard and on the following webpage: <https://bit.ly/tecnologo-unipa>.

Before evaluating the candidates' qualifications, the Committee shall verify that the eligibility requirements listed in Annex 1 of this call for applications are met, based on the applications submitted via the PICA platform.

The official records of the selection procedure shall consist of the minutes of the meetings held by the Committee.

The Committee must complete its work within three months of the date of its appointment decree. Should it fail to do so, the Director General, by reasoned decision, shall initiate procedures to replace the member(s) responsible for the delay and shall establish a new deadline for completion.

ART. 7 Assessment of Qualifications

A maximum of 15 points shall be awarded for the assessment of qualifications.

The following qualifications may be assessed, provided they are relevant to technical and administrative support for research activities:

- Documented work experience in areas relevant to the position, carried out at public or private research institutions for a minimum period of six months: up to a maximum of 10 points. Service or contract periods of more than 120 days, expressed in months, will also be considered proportionally, with scores rounded to the second decimal place.
- Additional academic qualifications: degrees other than the one used to meet the access requirement, postgraduate specialisations, research fellowships (assegno di ricerca), scholarships, PhDs: up to a maximum of 2 points.
- IT certifications: ECDL (European Computer Driving Licence), MOS (Microsoft Office Specialist), EIPASS (European Informatics Passport), or equivalent qualifications: up to a maximum of 1 point.
- Scientific publications relevant to the position. For co-authored publications, the score shall be divided equally among all listed authors, unless the individual contributions are explicitly stated in the publication: up to a maximum of 2 points.

The evaluation of qualifications shall take place prior to the oral test, following the identification of assessment criteria by the Selection Committee.

For each candidate, the Committee shall compile a summary evaluation sheet, which forms an integral part of the official minutes, listing the qualifications submitted under each category and the corresponding scores awarded.

The results of the qualification assessment will be published in advance of the oral test, in a confidential format, on the website indicated in ART. 15.

ART. 8

Oral Test

The selection procedure includes an oral test, consisting of an interview focused on the skills and activities relevant to the position profile, as outlined in Annex 1.

During the interview, candidates' knowledge of the English language will also be assessed, as well as their familiarity with the most commonly used computer applications (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Internet).

The oral test will take place in a publicly accessible room with sufficient capacity to allow for maximum participation.

The date, time, and venue of the oral test will be announced via a notice published on the University's Official Noticeboard and on the website indicated in ART. 15, and such notice shall serve as the official notification. Any changes to the date of the oral test will likewise be communicated via a notice on the University's Official Noticeboard and the website indicated in ART. 15, and shall serve as official notification.

At the end of each session dedicated to the oral test, the Selection Committee shall post a list of the candidates examined, which will be displayed at the test venue.

To be admitted to the test, candidates must present one of the following valid forms of identification:

- a. identity card;
- b. driving licence;
- c. boating licence;
- d. firearms licence;
- e. passport;
- f. identification card issued by a government authority, provided it includes a photograph and an official stamp or equivalent mark.

The oral test shall be considered passed if the candidate obtains a score of at least 21 out of 30.

The Committee has a total of 45 points at its disposal, allocated as follows:

- 15 points – assessment of qualifications
- 30 points – oral test

The final score will be calculated as the sum of the points awarded for the oral test and for the assessment of qualifications.

At the conclusion of its work, the Committee will draw up the general merit ranking list, arranged in descending order based on the final score obtained by each candidate.

ART. 9 Preference Criteria

Candidates who have passed the oral test and intend to claim preference, in accordance with applicable regulations, must submit, within a non-extendable period of 15 days from the date on which they sat the oral test, the documents certifying possession of any preference criteria previously indicated in their application, or equivalent self-declarations pursuant to Articles 46 and 47 of Presidential Decree No. 445/2000. These must also confirm that the requirements were met by the deadline for submission of the application.

Documents must be sent from the candidate's personal certified email address (PEC) to: pec@cert.unipa.it. Foreign applicants who do not have a PEC address may send their documents via email to: proceduretab@unipa.it. The email subject line must state: "Titoli di preferenza concorso n. 1 posto di tecnologo Area EP – SIA – Area Sistemi Informativi di Ateneo", followed by the unique code generated by the online platform.

The University reserves the right to carry out appropriate checks on the accuracy of the self-declarations submitted. Should such checks reveal any false or misleading statements, the candidate will lose the benefits derived from the related decision, without prejudice to the sanctions provided for in Article 76 of Presidential Decree No. 445/2000.

Late submission of the documents, submission of incorrect documents, or submission of documents that do not meet the required format shall result in automatic loss of entitlement to the relevant benefits, with no need for prior notice.

In the event of a tie in the overall ranking, the following preference criteria shall apply (pursuant to Article 5(4) of Presidential Decree No. 487/1994, as amended by Presidential Decree No. 82/2023):

- a) recipients of medals for military or civil valour, if no longer in service;
- b) individuals disabled or injured in public or private sector service;
- c) orphans of those who died in service, and children of individuals who are permanently disabled or unfit for work due to service-related reasons in the public or private sectors, including children of healthcare professionals, social workers, and social and health workers who died as a result of contracting Sars-CoV-2 while performing their duties;
- d) individuals who have performed meritorious service of at least one year, in any capacity, within the administration that issued the call, provided they do not benefit from another preference title based on the same service;
- e) higher number of dependent children;
- f) individuals with civil disabilities or injuries not falling under letter b);
- g) armed forces volunteers discharged honourably at the end of their term;
- h) athletes who have held professional sports roles with military or civilian State sports groups;
- i) individuals who have successfully completed an additional training period at the Judicial Support Office (Ufficio per il processo) under Article 50(1-quater) of Decree-Law No. 90 of 24 June 2014, converted with amendments by Law No. 114 of 11 August 2014;
- l) individuals who have successfully completed a legal traineeship at judicial offices (uffici giudiziari) under Article 37(11) of Decree-Law No. 98 of 6 July 2011, converted with amendments by Law No. 111 of 15 July 2011, even if not part of the Judicial Support Office (Ufficio per il processo) under Article 50(1-quinquies) of the same Decree-Law;
- m) individuals who have successfully completed an internship at judicial offices (uffici giudiziari) under Article 73(14) of Decree-Law No. 69 of 21 June 2013, converted with amendments by Law No. 98 of 9 August 2013;
- n) individuals who have held positions of collaboration with ANPAL Servizi S.p.A., pursuant to Article 12(3) of Decree-Law No. 4 of 28 January 2019, converted with amendments by Law No. 26 of 28 March 2019;
- o) belonging to the gender that is underrepresented within the administration issuing the call, with reference to the job classification in question, in accordance with Article 6;

p) younger age.

As of 31 December of the year preceding the publication of this call, with reference to the job classification and profile in question, the gender balance within the University of Palermo did not exceed a 30% difference. Therefore, the preference criterion under Article 5(4)(o) of Presidential Decree No. 487/1994 does not apply in this procedure

ART. 10

Approval of the Ranking List

By decision of the Director General, taking into account any preference criteria referred to in the previous article, the selection procedure records and the final merit ranking list shall be formally approved, and the successful candidate(s) shall be declared.

This decision will be posted on the University's Official Noticeboard and published on the University of Palermo's website at the address indicated in Art. 15.

The deadline for any appeals shall begin on the date of posting on the Official Noticeboard.

The merit ranking list shall remain valid for the period established by applicable legislation.

ART. 11

Establishment of the Employment Relationship and Submission of Required Documentation

The successful candidate shall be hired on a trial basis under a fixed-term individual employment contract lasting 18 months, at a Senior Professional Level (EP Grade) – in the Technical-IT Sector.

The trial period shall last four weeks. The successful candidate, once called to take up the position, must submit the required documentation to the relevant unit within the Organisational and Human Resources Development Area within thirty days of the start of employment.

The contract may be extended in accordance with applicable legal and contractual provisions.

Any documents written in a foreign language must be accompanied by a certified Italian translation, issued by the relevant diplomatic or consular authority, or by an official translator, confirming that it corresponds to the original text.

The signing of the contract is subject to the actual availability of funding.

ART. 12

Termination of the contract

Completion of the programme, the availability of funds, expiry of the contract, termination of the associated research agreement, or the natural conclusion of the contractual term shall all result in the termination of the employment relationship.

The contract shall include a clause granting the University the right to unilaterally terminate the contract in the event of funding being discontinued.

ART. 13

Procedure Officer

The Procedure Officer is Ms Sonia Contrafatto, Piazza Marina No. 61 – 90133 Palermo – email:

proceduretab@unipa.it

ART. 14

Privacy Notice on the Processing of Personal Data

Pursuant to Articles 12 and 13 of EU Regulation 2016/679 (General Data Protection Regulation – GDPR), concerning the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data, the personal data provided by candidates are collected by the Organisational and Human Resources Development Unit of the University of Palermo for purposes related to the conduct of the selection procedure. These data are stored and processed in an automated database using methods fully consistent with the stated purposes, including if an employment relationship is subsequently established.

Providing such data is mandatory for the purpose of assessing candidates' eligibility to participate in the selection procedure; failure to provide them will result in exclusion from the competition. Providing data related to any preference or priority criteria is optional.

The University does not require the consent of data subjects to process the data provided, in accordance with Article 6(1) of EU Regulation 2016/679.

The data may be disclosed exclusively to public authorities where such disclosure is necessary for purposes related to the selection procedure.

Further information on data processing can be found in the privacy notice available at:
