

Second Meeting of Provide Project

“PRoximity On Violence: Defence and Equity”

[Justice Programme (2014-2020) / [Rights, Equality and Citizenship Programme (2014-2020)]

UNIVERSITY OF JAÉN, 6TH AND 7TH SEPTEMBER

Letter of Principal Investigator

Dear Colleagues,

this second meeting places us in the "heart" of the "Provide" project and will represent a crucial moment of our future actions.

It will transform our first phase of our work, dedicated to the research, into a concrete operative dimension aimed at the training of operators who will work on the "field", with the refugees/asylum-seekers.

The concept of "proximity violence" has widened that of gender violence and spelt out how the violence is situated in crucial conditions such as those that precede, accompany and follow the transit of many people.

It will be a matter of culturally and procedurally reaffirming that "care" and "protection" of so many human beings precedes the issue of the security of the host countries.
