

The Project is funded by the European Union

PROVIDE
PRoximity On VIolence: Defence and Equity

FIRST OPEN DAY OF PROVIDE PROJECT

26th Juny 2018, the cooperative Badia Grande organized the Open Day on the PROVIDE (PRoximity On VIolence: Defense and Equity) project, in the Conference Hall of Contrada Cipponeri in Trapani. The Open Day aimed to inform citizens about the objectives of project founded by European Union - [Justice Programme (2014-2020) / [Rights, Equality and Citizenship Programme (2014) - both in terms of identifying the good support and assistance practices to victims of proximity violence and of training of practitioners that work with the victims of proximity violence.

During the Open Day were illustrated the objectives of the project Provide, the phases and the activities of project, the target of the beneficiaries.

Among the participants, were present:

dott. Antonio Manca, manager and coordinator of the "Badia Grande" cooperative that is one of the principal partners of PROVIDE project;

Prof. Ignazia Bartholini, principal investigator of the PROVIDE project;

Dr. Maria Concetta Papa, director of the Hotspot of Trapani Milo;

Dr. Pamela Corso, manager of the Cas di Badia Grande;

Dr. Giuseppina Cusenza, responsible for the Sprar of Badia Grande;

Among the other institutional authorities were present at Open Day:

the Councilor for Social Policies of the Municipality of Trapani, dott. Vincenzo Abbruscato.

The Head of Social Services of the Municipality of Trapani; dott. Rita Scaringi the Mayor of Valderice, dott. Francesco Stabile.