

Call for Participation: Blended Intensive Programme on Europe, Law, and Identity

The Universities of Burgundy, Palermo, and Valencia are pleased to invite university students across the EU to participate in an exciting Blended Intensive Programme (BIP) on Europe, Law, and Identity. The first part of the BIP will take place online, in two sessions of two hours each (the topic, date and time will be finalised soon). The second part, which will take place on campus, is a five-day programme that will take place from 16 to 20 June 2025 in Dijon, France and offers a unique academic and cultural experience.

Programme Overview

The BIP aims to explore the interplay between European identity, law, and governance, providing students with an in-depth understanding of these key themes. The programme includes:

- Morning Conferences – Lectures and discussions led by academics on law and identity in the European context.
- Interactive Workshops – Engaging activities that allow students to deepen their knowledge and apply theoretical concepts.
- Final Academic Presentation – Each participant will prepare and deliver a formal academic presentation on the programme's theme, developing essential skills for scholarly communication.

Additional Activities

Beyond the academic sessions, participants will enjoy extra-curricular activities designed to enrich their experience:

- Day-trip to the European Parliament in Strasbourg – Gain firsthand insights into the workings of EU institutions.
- Guided Tour of Dijon – Discover the cultural and historical heritage of the host city.
- Networking Dinner – A special evening event to foster connections among students from across Europe.

Why Participate?

This programme is an excellent opportunity to:

- Deepen your understanding of the relationship between law and identity in the European Union.
- Develop essential academic skills, particularly in formal conference presentation.
- Collaborate and socialise with fellow students from diverse backgrounds across Europe.

Who Can Apply?

This programme is open to university students from EU institutions who have an interest in European identity, law.

How to Apply?

For more details on the application process and deadlines, please read the call for proposals that will be published on the DEMS Department website (<https://www.unipa.it/dipartimenti/dems>) and in the BIP projects section (progettibip | Università degli Studi di Palermo).

Join us in Dijon for an intellectually stimulating and socially enriching experience. We look forward to welcoming you in June 2025!
