2 WHAT TO DO WHEN ARRIVING TO PALERMO

Codice Fiscale

The tax code is an identification code issued by the Ministry of Finance which is used to open a current account or to sign contracts. Citizens residing abroad can request it from the Italian diplomatic-consular representation in their country of residence. In Italy, it must be requested from the Revenue Agency Office of the city where you reside.

The complete list of offices in the province of Palermo can be found at www.agenziaentrate.gov.it/indirizzi/agenzia/uffici_locali/lista.htm?m=2&pr=PA.

Remember to bring your passport with you.

Health coverage

To obtain Health coverage, you may either voluntarily register with the National Health Service or subscribe a private medical insurance. With the National Health Service (SSN) you can choose a referring medical doctor, who will take care of your health problems for free and will prescribe you medications, exams and any specialist visits. Registration is valid for one calendar year (from January 1st to December 31st). To register with the SSN:

If you are a non-EU citizen you must:

- fill in and pay at the post office a payment slip of 149.77 Euros (cost of the service for the calendar year) on the postal account n ° 618900 addressed to “Regione Siciliana” with the reason: “iscrizione volontaria al SSN anno 20__”;
- contact the ASP (Provincial Health Authority) office closest to your home address (find all the addresses on the website <https://www.asppalermo.org/informazioni-dettaglio.asp?ID=7>) bringing with you:
 - payment receipt;
 - Fiscal Code;
 - passport;
 - receipt of the residence permit request;
 - self-certification of residence or stay.

2 WHAT TO DO WHEN ARRIVING TO PALERMO

If you are an EU citizen:

If you have a TEAM card you can access the National Health Service (SSN) in the first three months of stay in Italy without paying any registration. Should you stay in Italy for more than 3 months, the European health card entitles you to benefit only from the necessary medical treatments, while for complete health coverage you must request, before departure, the form E 106/S1 /S072. If you are in possession of the form E 106/S1 /S072, you can register with the National Health Service for free by contacting one of the local ASP health offices. The documents required for registration at the ASP offices are:

- self-certification of university enrolment;
- tax code;
- copy of passport or other identity document;
- self-certification of residence or stay;
- E 106/S1 /S072 form.

If you do not have the E 106/S1 /S072 form, you can voluntarily register with the NHS by paying a registration fee and following the same procedure as for non-European citizens.

Bank current account - prepaid card

Before opening a bank account, it is useful to inquire about the rates charged by the various banks. In general, online checking accounts/prepaid bank or postal cards offer students more convenient terms. When opening your account, you must fill in some forms, present an identification document (passport or national identity card if EU citizen), a residence permit or a receipt for a residence permit request (non-EU citizens) the tax code, the registration at the Municipality of residence or the declaration of domicile and a certificate of registration at the University.

Academic calendar

The academic calendar is divided into two semesters: the first one from late September to February, and the second one from late February to July. Classes usually start in late September and end by mid-December; they start again in late February and end in late May. The exams of the first semester are held in January and February and those of the second semester in June and July. Each department publishes its academic calendar with class times and exam dates.

CFU and votes

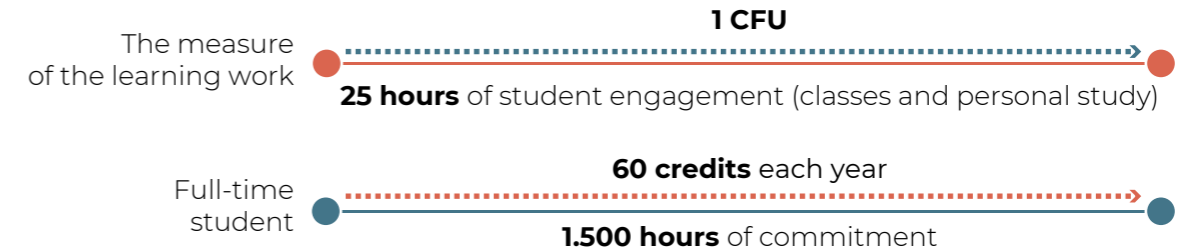

Italian Degree courses are structured in University Credits (CFU), which are considered equivalent to ECTS (European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System) credits (1 CFU = 1 ECTS). The CFU is the measure of the learning work and generally corresponds to 25 hours of student engagement (classes and personal study). A full-time student should achieve 60 credits each year, upon passing the exams, equal to 1500 hours of commitment. The credits do not replace the mark which is expressed out of 30: the minimum mark is equal to 18 and the maximum mark is equal to 30. Students can obtain "praise" (30 mark and honors) if their examination is considered excellent.

CFU & VOTES

Italian Degree courses are structured in University Credits (CFU)

University fees and benefits

University fees are divided into two instalments: the first to be paid at the time of enrolment, the second in December at the end of the first semester. Students can pay online using the PagoPa system, accessible from their personal area of the University website. The tax amounts are calculated on the basis of the ISEE “parificato” for international students with the family residing abroad.

To allow the effective exercise of the right to study, Unipa provides students with various types of financial aids: exemptions and reductions in fees, scholarships, Degree awards, also through ERSU (the regional Agency for the right to study).

The deadlines and payment methods and the rules for exemptions may be found at <https://www.unipa.it/amministrazione/direzionegenerale/serviziospecialeperladidatticaeglistudenti/tasse-e-agevolazioni/>

Getting around town

Students may reach Palermo by various means of transport, such as plane, train, bus, taxi and car. Once you reach the city, there are various possibilities for the traveller to get around it: the centre of Palermo can be easily visited on foot, thus avoiding travel by car, which would be chaotic, given the heavy traffic in the historic centre.

In the city you can also move using the public transport, (bus, tram, underground) or the bicycle, preferable in the historic centre which is a limited traffic area.

To encourage students to use public transport and to promote sustainable mobility, the University has provided subscriptions with the AMAT company at discounted prices for students:

- subscription for n. 4 lines of bus and/or tram:
amat.pa.it/percorsi-e-orari/;
 validity 30 days and cost €15.00

4 LIVING IN PALERMO

In addition, the University of Palermo and AMAT have signed an agreement for a sustainable mobility project dedicated to the university community (students, teachers and technical-administrative staff), providing discounted fares for the services AmiGO car sharing and Bike sharing. The agreement provides facilities dedicated to the entire university community for the purchase of the annual AmiGo car and Bike sharing subscription at a reduced price of 50%. The service can be activated by registering on the AmiGO by AMAT website or by downloading the AmiGO app for Android on Google Play or for iPhone on the App Store.
