COLONIALITY AND MIGRATION GOVERNANCE. CONTINUATIONS AND EVOLUTIONS

Scientific board:
Clelia Bartoli, Alice Nortier, Aldo Schiavello,
Alessandra Sciurba, Massimo Starita

Supported by:
Corso di Laurea Magistrale in "Migration, Rights, Integration"
Dipartimento di Giurisprudenza, Università degli Studi di Palermo
Centro Interdipartimentale di Ricerca "Migrare"
Università di Palermo

In collaboration with:
Dottorato in "Diritti Umani
Evoluzione tutela e limiti", Università degli Studi di Palermo
Dottorato in "Mediascape
Ricerca e Produzioni Artistiche Transculturali",
Accademia di Belle Arti Palermo

LUNEDÌ 26 MAGGIO 2025 – 9.30/13.00
Aula Santi Romano, Dipartimento di Giurisprudenza
via Maqueda 172, Palermo

CONTEMPORARY MANIFESTATIONS OF COLONIALITY IN LAW, POLITICS AND STUDIES ON MIGRATION
Chair:
Aldo Schiavello and Clelia Bartoli
Università degli Studi di Palermo

Can human rights law be a site for resisting colonial migration policy?
Thomas Spijkerboer, Gent University

Decolonization, neocolonialism and African agency in the Horn of Africa
Luca Puddu, Università degli Studi di Palermo

A world cut in two, still. Consciousness and dreams of migrants at the end of postcolony
Simona Taliani, Centro Frantz Fanon, Università Orientale di Napoli

Who Needs Migration Studies?
Shahram Khosravi, University of Stockholm

Coloniality and Raciality in the European Academy in the Present Conjuncture
Kolar Aparna, University of Helsinki

Light Lunch - 13.30

LUNEDÌ 26 MAGGIO 2025 – 14.30/16.30
Museo Internazionale delle Marionette A. Pasqualino,
Piazzetta Antonio Pasqualino 5 (traversa via Butera), Palermo

THE ITALY-ALBANIA ASYLUM DEAL AND ITS HISTORICAL LEGACY
Chair:
Massimo Starita
Università degli Studi di Palermo

Lease agreements and Western concessions in China. A History of international law
Luigi Nuzzo, Università del Salento

Albanian-Italian mobilities through a decolonial approach: The historical backgrounds of the Rama-Meloni protocol
Fabio Bego, Aisseco

Protocollo Italia Albania, diritto UE e normativa nazionale: applicazioni concrete e prospettive
Silvia Albano, Judge in the immigration section of the Rome court

26 - 27 May 2025

Law Department, Università degli Studi di Palermo

La giurisdizione penale nei centri di detenzione albanesi: il ritorno del diritto penale coloniale?
Luca Masera, Università di Brescia

17.00 / 18.00 Palazzo Butera, Palermo
Traces of colonialism in art. A visit of the Francesca e Massimo Valsecchi's collection by Claudio Gulli, Palazzo Butera Director

MARTEDÌ 27 MAGGIO 2025 – 10.00/13.00
Aula Santi Romano, Dipartimento di Giurisprudenza
Via Maqueda 172, Palermo

NEOCOLONIAL POLICIES AND MOBILITY REGIMES IN NORTH AFRICA AND IN THE CENTRAL MEDITERRANEAN SEA
Chair:
Alessandra Sciurba
Università degli Studi di Palermo

The historicity of (im)mobility regimes along the Tunisian-Libyan border and their colonial afterlives: from frontierization to elastic bordering Chiara Pagano, School of Interdisciplinary Transnational Studies, University of Graz

The conditions of refugees in Libya, between neocolonial policies and human rights violations
David Yambio, President and spokesperson for "Refugees in Lybia"

The link between Migration and Racism in the Euromediterranean region: Migration policies in the Central Mediterranean Sea as a form of EU Neocolonialism
Giorgia Linardi, Spokesperson for "Sea-Watch" and "Institutional Racism" Project coordinator for "Avocats Sans Frontieres"

The impact of the EU Migration policies on the failure of the democratic transition in Tunisia
Antonio Manganella, "Avocats Sans Frontieres" in charge for the Euromediterranean area

Human rights compliance in EU external funds on migration
Sara Prestianni, Advocacy director "Euromed Rights"

MARTEDÌ 27 MAGGIO 2025 – 14.30/17.00
Moltivolti,
via Giuseppe Mario Puglia, 21

World cafè with grassroots organizations to reflect, highlight, and resist

Facilitators:
Alice Nortier,
Paris 1 Sorbonne University
Bandiougou Diawara,
RIght2Be

2 CFU