Augmented City Lab*

rship with

Terme di Geraci Siculo S.p.A.

*The Augmented City Lab of the University of Palermo's DARCH is a teaching-research-action lab dedicated to the sustainable cities and communities of the future. It was founded in 2018 by Prof. Maurizio Carta, full professor of urban planning, who is its director, and is composed of DARCH scholars and makes use of a network of experts from other Italian and foreign universities and institutions with which cultural collaboration projects are activated.
