FINAL REPORT

I was privileged to be supported by the A.S.CENT Center at the University of Palermo. During my visit from February 10 to May 10, 2025, I engaged in profound intellectual exchanges with world-leading scholars and researchers at the University, particularly Professors Miranda, Armao, Casabona, and Garilli. Our discussion resulted in fruitful outcomes. We organized two workshops exploring the implications of competition law in Japan in addressing the latest digital market issues, as well as the methodologies employed in pioneering new fields of legal study. Furthermore, we developed plans to extend scholarly cooperation between Italy, Japan, and Taiwan. Professor Rosalba Potenzano from the Faculty of Law and I will jointly teach a course titled Digital Transformation Law at National Yang Ming Chiao Tung University in Fall 2025. We also planned to host researchers from the University of Palermo to undertake research in Japan in 2026. More collaborations are forthcoming.
