FINAL REPORT

Dear Professor Miranda

I am pleased to report that my stay at University of Palermo with the support of the ASCent program, has been extremely fruitful. I have been able to rely on the library resources for investigating numerous aspects of Italian law, arrange for formal and informal meetings with many colleagues – especially in the law department – in order to discuss my ongoing research and thus benefit from their expertise. I leave the University of Palermo with many highly valuable findings, insights and references that will be essential to the book manuscript I am working on.

I have also happily made myself available for several activities at the University of Palermo. I taught a course in the Winter school organized by the Dottorato in Studi di Genere in February, attended several conferences and seminars organized within the Law department, and gave a talk (Pensare il diritto antidiscriminatorio con Hannah Arendt) that triggered an interesting exchange with colleagues. I also acted as a president (1) and member (2) of two commissions for the delivery of the University of Palermo doctorate – one within the Dottorato in Studi di genere, and the other two within the Dottorato in Diritti Umani.

I am thankful for the opportunity of this research stay and confident that further collaborations will ensue in the future.

Kind regards

Stéphanie Hennette Vauchez
