

SUMMER SCHOOL

Palermo 2014

30th June - 26th September

Palermo University
Italian Language School

SHORT SPECIAL COURSES ITALIAN AND CINEMA

Levels: From Pre-Intermediate to Advanced

Dates: 28th of July – 8th of August

Cost: 200 Euros (including registration, learning materials and recreational activities)

Hours of lesson: 20

Description: “There were, there are and there will be films about Sicily because Sicily is cinema”, said the Sicilian writer Leonardo Sciascia, symbol of the fight against the Mafia. And Giuseppe Tornatore, Sicilian director and Oscarwinner, adds: “No other small region has ever attracted the interest and the interests of the film industry with such an insistence as happened to the island in the shape of a triangle. Sicily could be defined as an authentic film location”. The course is based on the intertwining of literary texts, films and territory and it will investigate all the aspects related to film culture and territory. Also, it will aim at developing the comprehension and the oral interaction skills, and it will include guided visits to the locations linked to famous films.

The activities will take place in the afternoon.

Special offers: If you register for more than one course, you will receive a discount on the total price.

Also, you will receive a discount for the Winter and Summer School 2015.

Info: www.itastra.unipa.it

Booking and registration: scuolaitalianostranieri@unipa.it